MISS MARGUERITE BUCKLER, IN COSTUME OF "JULIETTE."

MARGUERITE BUCKLER, an El Paso girl, has returned to the opera of the Opera Comique and the guests included the old nobility of America and her home after several years abroad, where she studied with the famous Jean de Reszke and sang in the opera houses of Monte Carlo, Vichy, Nice, Bruxelles and finally for two great performances of the ever popular "The Women and Juliette," at the Casino Grand, where she has an intimate friend of the Duke and Duchess of Tallandier (Anna Gould), who enjoyed the beautiful American girl to such an extent that the Duchesse gave Miss Buckler a musical at her pink marble palace on the Champs Elysees, where she was assisted by the orchestra through the University Scholarship Club.

UGH! A DISE OF NASTY CALOMEL

It salivates! It makes you sick and you may lose a day's work.

You're illious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight straighten out your nerves and calmel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calmel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tonic tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.—Advertisement.
